

National level training programme on “Improved production technologies of jute and allied fibre crops” under NFSM Commercial Crops (Jute) from 07/02/17 to 09/02/17 at ICAR-CRIJAF, Barrackpore.

A National Level Training Programme on “Improved production technologies of jute and allied fibre crops” under NFSM-CC (Jute) was organized at ICAR-CRIJAF, Barrackpore from 07-09th February 2017.

Director, CRIJAF Dr. Jiban Mitra in inaugural Session of the Training programme

A total of 24 participants from state governments of West Bengal, Bihar, Andhra Pradesh, and personnel working in various NGOs related to Jute and allied fibre crops participated in the training. Dr. J. Mitra, Director, ICAR-CRIJAF welcomed the participants in the inaugural session of the training along with HODs, Dr. S. Satpathy and Dr. D.

Participants attending the training session

K. Kundu and Joint Director, DJD, Shri J. Das. Dr. C. S. Kar, Course Director narrated the importance of the training at the present context to the participants.

Dr. C.S Kar, Co-ordinator NFSM (CC) jute, CRIJAF, addressing the participants

During these 3 days, 15 theory classes were arranged on various aspects of improved production technologies jute, mesta, sunnhemp, soil and water management, weed, pest and disease management, Improved varieties, extraction technique and retting developed for jute and allied fibre crops with power point presentation by the scientists working on these aspects. Practical classes and hands on training were also organized on 08/02/17 on mechanical extraction of jute, sisal, and ramie and seed processing of jute.

Training manual for National Level Training Programme on “Improved Production Technology of Jute and Allied Fibres”

Editors
C. S. Kar,
Manik Lal Roy,
Shailesh Kurran,
M. S. Behera and Anil Bera

Organized by:
ICAR-Central Research Institute for Jute & Allied Fibres
Barrackpore, Kolkata-700 120, West Bengal
(An ISO 9001:2008 Certified Institute)
&
National Food Security Mission-Commercial Crops (Jute)
February, 2017

A training manual on “Improved production technologies of jute and allied fibre crops” was prepared and distributed among the participants. On the last day of training, valedictory session was conducted and certificates were distributed to the participants by Director, ICAR-CRIJAF, HODs of Crop Production, Crop Improvement, Crop Protection and I/C, Agril. Extension section after taking feedback from the participants. The training was concluded with of vote of thanks by Dr. Manik Lal Roy, Course Coordinator, NFSM-CC, ICAR-CRIJAF.

Report Submitted by:

(C S KAR)

Co-Ordinator NFSM (CC) Jute, CRIJAF, BARRACKPORE